A Lottery winner uses his fortune to attempt to re-create the days of weekly Rep. He assembles a motley crew of actors, whose insecurities and personalities clash with hilarious results. We join the action on a Monday morning in July as they are preparing for the next play of the season "Murder on the Farm".

Emotions are running high, and things cannot get much worse... or can they ?..... Is this rehearsal for "Murder on the Farm" or really a..... "Rehearsal for Murder" ?
